DEMOCRATS CHOOSE COX AND ROOSEVELT

COX IS VICTOR ON 44TH BALLOT

Release of Attorney General
Palmer's Delegates Dislodges
Convention Deadlock

NOMINEE IS READY

Says He Will Urge His Political
Advisers Against "Front Porch"
Campaign Like Harding's

San Francisco, July 6. — James M. Cox, three times governor of Ohio, was nominated for the presidency early this morning by the Democratic National convention in the breakup of one of the most prolonged deadlocks in the history of national political parties.

It took 44 ballots to make a choice, and it was not until the thirty-eighth, when Attorney General Palmer withdrew from the race, that the long succession of roll calls showed any definite trend.

In the turnover of the Palmer delegates Cox gained the advantage over William G. McAdoo, his rival for first place since early in the balloting, and that advantage ever was lost.

Palmer Release Causes Slide.
Supporters of Governor Cox won a way to the nomination by persistent battering at the McAdoo and Palmer forces in many states throughout a long series of shiftings and rallies which left none one and then the other of the candidates in the lead.

On the opening ballot Friday the Ohio governor was in third place. He soon passed Palmer, however, and on the 15th ballot went ahead of McAdoo. Then began a see-sawing between the Cox and McAdoo totals which at the end of the 29th roll call at midnight found the two virtually the same.

The release of Attorney General Palmer's delegates after the 35th ballot dislodged the keystone of the convention jam, although for a time it appeared that the deadlock between McAdoo and Cox would continue indefinitely.

With 211 Palmer delegates, on the thirty eighth call, turned loose McAdoo gained 34 1/2 votes on the thirty ninth ballot and Cox 55, with one Louisiana and 73 Pennsylvania delegates staying by the attorney general. On the next, the fortieth ballot, Cox jumped from 45 1/2 to 49 1/2 and McAdoo from 44 to 47, while Palmer dropped to 12. McAdoo held the Georgia delegation for that and the succeeding ballot also, but Cox scooped up scattering delegates from the McAdoo column from various states. Both sides watched, in vain, for Tennessee to swing her 24 votes from Davis, they remained in the ambassador's column until the last.

The 41st ballot showed a net gain of 1 1/2 votes for Cox and a loss of 1 for McAdoo.

Davis Voters Hold Fast.
Both leaders were under the 500 mark on the forty first ballot at midnight, with each slipping into the other's camp and the Davis voters holding fast. On the succeeding ballot, Cox made his first big gain which portended the finale.

Closing with 49 1/2 votes on the forty first ballot, Cox rose on the next to 54 1/2, or only 1/2 less than a majority of the convention, while McAdoo dropped from 48 to 47. Then Georgia started the slide toward Cox, swinging 28 solid from McAdoo. Cox picked up more scattering votes. McAdoo, however, still held the bulk of the Pennsylvanians. Cox shot twenty over a majority on the forty-third ballot, getting 56 1/2 as against 54 1/2 on the previous roll. McAdoo dropped fifteen on the forty-third, going from 47 to 42.

The final ballot began at 1:15. Almost from the start Cox began taking single and double votes from the McAdoo delegations. The break-up developed when three Florida delegates which had stood fast for McAdoo for many ballots, swung over and gave Cox a solid twelve. Cox held Georgia intact, gained four more Illinois from McAdoo and then Tom Taggart announced a solid block of thirty from Indiana for Cox, taking ten from McAdoo. Kentucky likewise gave no three McAdoo votes and made it 58 solid for Cox.

McAdoo gave another unbroke vote. Maryland gave McAdoo 5 1/2 and Cox 6 1/2. Massachusetts then rolled 15 of her 26 votes to Cox, who also gained six more from Missouri, while the Nebraska seven, which had been enrolling for McAdoo, also turned to the Ohioan. Pennsylvania then cast 58, leaving but four to McAdoo, as compared to 47 on the preceding visited the grave of his mother for a few minutes. She died at the age of 52 several years ago, after living to see him inaugurated governor for his first term.

Plans were being made by the Dayton chamber of commerce for a joint session in Dayton at a later date, probably July 15.

When the news announcing the nomination of their fellow townsman was received, most Daytonians were in bed. They received their first news of the nomination this morning.

The nomination of Governor Cox was the talk of the town. However, excepting for a picture of the governor on the front of his newspaper building along with late returns of the balloting, there was nothing to indicate that a Dayton citizen had been chosen for the highest honor the Democratic party can give.

James Middleton Cox was three time governor of Ohio—an honor enjoyed by only one other Ohioan, Rufus B. Hayes.

Cox Is Ready to Make a "Swing Around the Circle"

Dayton, Ohio, July 6. — In a telegram to the Democratic national convention accepting the presidential nomination and thanking the delegates for their support, Governor James M. Cox today intimated he is ready to make an extensive speaking campaign in every state.

His close friends said he will urge his political advisers against a "front porch" campaign such as Senator Harding, the Republican presidential nominee, expects to make at his home in Marion.

The campaign said, however, that no plans have been formulated and the campaign will not be discussed officially until Democratic national committee members and other party leaders return from San Francisco. Although he said he had not yet considered the matter, he indicated he had no intention of resigning as governor in order to devote all of his time to the campaign. He pointed out that Senator Harding had announced that he would not resign from the senate.

Governor Receives Old Friends.
Governor Cox spent the day receiving old friends at his home, Traill's End, near Dayton, and in his office at his new home in the Dayton News.

He received 11 calls to Middletown, Ohio, to make a brief address to friends and a group of his youthful days when he was a teacher, printer's boy and newspaper reporter.

Harding's old friends, including Congressman Paul Sorensen, were among the first to call. It was a physical answer to many of them. Several "winter" calls were kept busy with them.

The Ohio governor spent all yesterday afternoon and night listening to reports of the progress of the convention. He received the first news of his nomination from The Associated Press by a cable in his newspaper office. Together with Mrs. Cox and a few close friends and the newspaper assistants, he and later watching the reports of the convention.

When the final announcement of his nomination as governor came for a moment he was stunned. Then he crossed the room and said he was his next act was to go to the composing room of his newspaper and shake hands with the printer. Later he walked over to the home of his closest personal friend, John A. McAdoo, of Dayton, to whom he wished personally to break the news.

QUICK DECISION FOR ROOSEVELT

Band Wagon Movement for Navy
Official Gets Under Way After
Final Session Opens

IS A GOOD "STUMPER"

Cox Pleased With Running-Mate
—Convention Finally Ends
At 3:29 P. M. Tuesday

San Francisco, July 6. — Franklin D. Roosevelt of New York, assistant secretary of the navy and relative of the president who bore that name, was chosen by the Democratic National convention today as its candidate for vice president and running mate for Governor Cox.

The band wagon movement for Mr. Roosevelt got under way very quickly soon after the convention assembled, and although other candidates, among them Governor Stewart of Montana and Major General L. D. Tyson of Tennessee, were presented, there was no doubt of Mr. Roosevelt's selection from the first.

At 3:29 o'clock the big show was all over and the convention adjourned for the last time.

Tammany "Swallows" Roosevelt.
The gossip about the convention hall was that the Tammany organization, with whom Mr. Roosevelt has not always been on good terms, was disinclined to accept him at first, but in the language of the politicians who were working for Roosevelt "Tammany decided to swallow him."

Governor Smith of New York finally took the platform and told the convention he had been instructed by his delegation "to second Mr. Roosevelt's nomination."

Some of the political managers recalled that today was the second time that political leaders of the state of New York had, against their will, accepted a man named Roosevelt on the national ticket. The late Thomas Platt was reluctant to accept Theodore Roosevelt for the vice presidential place in 1900 and the Tammany organization was reported no more favorably inclined to accept Franklin D. Roosevelt today.

Candidates Quickly Withdraw.
After Governor Smith had seconded Mr. Roosevelt's nomination, the band wagon movement got into full force, and one after another the other candidates or those who had spoken for them took the platform and withdrew their names.

Former Governor Dunne withdrew the name of James Hamilton Lewis. The name of David R. Francis was then withdrawn. Next the name of Edward L. Doheny of California was withdrawn. Major General L. D. Tyson of Tennessee personally took the platform and withdrew and then Senator Nugent withdrew the name of former Governor Hawley of Idaho. Joseph E. Davies of Wisconsin, by withdrawing his own name, by inference pledged Wisconsin to support Mr. Roosevelt. W. T. Vaughn of Oregon also withdrew and his sponsor seconded Mr. Roosevelt's nomination.

David R. Francis of St. Louis, former governor of Missouri and American ambassador to Russia, who also had been placed in nomination, took the platform and, besides giving approval to the nomination of Roosevelt, withdrew his own name. It was exactly 3:15 o'clock when the convention with loud cheers nominated Mr. Roosevelt, and the first party cry "Cox and Roosevelt" rang out.

Mr. Roosevelt left the convention hall just before he was nominated, but after his nomination was a certainty. To a number of friends he recalled that before the convention he prophesied that the convention would be "unblessed" and declared that his prophecy had come true.

Mr. Roosevelt went to his hotel from there to the nation's New Mexico to dine with Secretary Daniels, his chief.

The convention wanted to hear Roosevelt, but Chairman Robinson instead presented Secretary Daniels, who made a speech.

The convention then adjourned for the last time.

Senator Robinson of Arkansas, permanent chairman of the convention, was appointed chairman of the committee to notify Governor Cox of his nomination and Chairman Homer S. Cummings, of the Democratic National committee, was appointed chairman of the committee to notify Mr. Roosevelt.

Delay as Last Session Opens.
After its tumultuous session of 44

ballots, the convention reassembled at noon to finish its work.

There was at first a delay utilized by the Cox managers to hear from the governor about his wishes on the vice Presidential nomination. E. H. Moore of Youngstown, Ohio, who managed the go around's fight let it be known that Cox was willing to leave the selection of his running-mate to the convention. With that, the forces easily and quickly coalesced and after Roosevelt's nomination applauded an appreciation of him by his chief, Secretary Josephus Daniels.

During the closing moments of the convention, the usual formal resolutions affecting the national committee and the convention organization were adopted with a resolution expressing the thanks and appreciation of the convention to the city of San Francisco.

Chairman Homer S. Cummings, of the national committee, said: "The convention reached its result in a truly Democratic manner. The forces, purposes and opinions represented by the delegation had full play and reached an uncontrolled result. It was a long, hard contest, but it leaves no scars and the candidates will have the united support of the party."

"San Francisco redeemed every promise that was made in her behalf and in many respects far exceeded our expectations. There were some who doubted the wisdom of holding a national convention on the Pacific coast. Actual experience, however, has removed all doubt."

The new Democratic national committee met today, and after a discussion of plans for organization, adjourned subject to the call of Chairman Cummings, who expects to bring the committee together for permanent organization in about two weeks. The meeting probably will be held in Columbus or Dayton, Ohio.

Cox Pleased With Running-Mate.

Dayton, Ohio, July 6. — Governor James M. Cox, Democratic presidential nominee, tonight expressed his approval of Franklin D. Roosevelt as his running-mate in the coming election.

A telegram of congratulation sent by Governor Cox to Mr. Roosevelt late this afternoon said:

"Please accept my warmest congratulations over the honor that has come to you. I am very much delighted that we are associated together in the contest."

In discussing Mr. Roosevelt, Governor Cox characterized him as a "very vigorous, upstanding, courageous and progressive Democrat."

"Mr. Roosevelt's speech before the national committee in Chicago last winter made a very strong impression," said the governor. "He spoke in Dayton last winter on Americanization and his address at that time was very favorably commented upon all over the country. His service at Washington has given him a wide experience and acquaintanceship."

The governor added that Mr. Roosevelt was a very good "stumper." Governor Cox tonight wired Edward H. Moore, his campaign manager at San Francisco, saying:

"Rarely, if ever, has the magnificent fight which you made been equalled in a national convention. Generalship matched support from the ranks and that is saying much for both. Congratulations and thanks."

Roosevelt's Home Town Receives News Quietly

Poughkeepsie, July 6. — The little village of Hyde Park, birthplace and summer residence of Franklin D. Roosevelt, assistant secretary of the navy and Democratic candidate for the vice presidency, received quietly but with elation the news this evening that its favorite political son had been named as running-mate to Governor James M. Cox. The Associated Press carried the first news of his nomination to Mr. Roosevelt's residence, but attempts to communicate with his mother, Mrs. James Roosevelt, were unavailing, as she was out for the evening.

Mr. Roosevelt first sprang into political prominence in 1919, when he was drafted by the Democrats of the twenty-eighth New York state senatorial district, consisting of the counties of Dutchess, Putnam and Columbia, in an effort to defeat Senator John F. Schlosser, of Beacon, who was a candidate for re-election. Roosevelt was successful, rolling up a majority of 355 in the Democratic landslide, which carried John A. Dix into the governor's chair. One of the stories told of Roosevelt's first campaign by local politicians is that he corralled the farmer vote by running a platform which advocated uniform apple barrels.

Famous Exploit in State Senate

Mr. Roosevelt was re-elected in 1922, but resigned his seat on March 11, 1923, to accept the appointment as assistant secretary of the navy. His most famous exploit in the state senate was his leadership of the insurgents who opposed the election of William F. Sheehan to the United States senate. After three months' deadlock, James A. O'Gorman was elected with Mr. Roosevelt's encouragement.

Since Mr. Roosevelt's appointment to the navy department, he has spent most of his time in Washington, returning during the summer months and on holiday trips to visit his mother. He has never relinquished his deep interest in Hyde Park, however, and still is one of its foremost citizens and one of the leading parishioners of St. James' Episcopal church, which the Roosevelt family have attended for years. He is a frequent visitor in Poughkeepsie, and active in county Democratic councils.

ended for years. He is a frequent visitor in Poughkeepsie, and active in county Democratic councils.

Mr. Roosevelt was born in Hyde Park, January 30, 1882, the son of James and Sarah Delano Roosevelt. He is a distant relative of Colonel Theodore Roosevelt on his father's side, and of the Astor family through his mother. He attended the Groton school and was graduated from Harvard in 1904 and the Columbia law school in 1907, being admitted to the New York bar during the same year. He practiced at first with Carter, Ledyard and Milburn of New York, and then became a member of the firm of Marvin, Hooker and Roosevelt.

Mr. Roosevelt married Anna Eleanor Roosevelt, niece of the late Colonel Theodore Roosevelt and daughter of Eliza Roosevelt, in 1905. They have five children.

Roosevelt's Mother "Very Happy."

"I am very happy, indeed," said Mrs. James Roosevelt, mother of Franklin D. Roosevelt, when informed later of the action of the convention. "I am sure that my son did not expect the honor that has come to him, but I am proud of it and hope that since he has been nominated he will win."

Mrs. Roosevelt said that she had heard nothing from her son, but expected he would return to Washington before coming to the family home in Hyde Park, in order to clean up the business which has accumulated at his desk in the navy department during his absence at the convention.

Members of the Poughkeepsie city and Dutchess county Democratic committees began plans this evening for a rousing welcome for Mr. Roosevelt.

Wilson Offers Felicitations.

Washington, July 6. — President Wilson tonight sent Franklin D. Roosevelt, assistant secretary of the navy, Democratic candidate for vice president, the following telegram: "Please accept my warm congratulations and good wishes."

TEXAS MOB BURNS TWO NEGROES AT THE STAKE

Were Charged With Killing Their Landlord; Crowd Storms Jail to Get Prisoners

Paris, Texas, July 6. — Irving and Herman Arthur, negroes, aged 19 and 23 years, charged with having shot and killed their landlord, J. H. Hodges, and his son, William Hodges, were burned at a stake here tonight by a mob.

The negroes were captured last night at Valiant, Ok., and were brought to the jail here this afternoon. Late in the day, a crowd gathered which quickly increased and finally stormed the jail on the top floor of the court house, breaking down the iron outer door.

There was no disorder except the yelling of the crowd as the negroes were brought out. The prisoners were taken to the fair grounds north of the city, where a stake and fuel had been prepared.

The killing of Hodges and his son is said to have resulted after a dispute over money.

Hotel, Ok., July 6. — Sheriff Dewart of McCurtain county, Ok., tonight quoted Sheriff Clarkson of Paris, Texas, a declaring one of the negroes burned at Paris tonight was "not the right one" and that he was doubtful whether the other "was the right party." The Paris sheriff went to the two negroes he believes killed the Texas farmer and his son.

ASYLUM INMATE KILLED.

Poughkeepsie, July 6. — It was learned today that John Devlin, 53, a patient at the Hudson River state hospital, died yesterday at the institution as the result of being hit on the head with a shovel by Richard Delaney, another patient, in a fit of religious mania. Both men had been working in the stone quarry at the hospital on Thursday when suddenly Delaney attacked Devlin. The latter did not lose consciousness at once but asked Delaney "why did you do that?"

Delaney replied: "God told me to hit you and hit you quick." Devlin later died in the hospital infirmary.

HARDING WON'T CHANGE PLANS

Cox's Selection Will in No Way
Alter "Front Porch" Campaign, Senator Says

PREPARES HIS SPEECH

Will Confer Friday With Republican Leaders to Arrange Details of Notification

Marion, Ohio, July 6. — Senator Harding, the Republican candidate for the Presidency, spent a quiet day today, receiving but few callers and devoting his time almost exclusively to his correspondence and the accumulation of data for his speech of acceptance.

Immediately after hearing of the selection of Governor Cox as the Democratic Presidential nominee, however, the senator sent him a congratulatory telegram, while in a statement he said the Ohio governor deserved the nomination, but that the selection would in no way alter his plans for a "front porch" campaign.

"Governor Cox's nomination," Senator Harding said, "is an added consideration shown to our great state of Ohio for which I am glad, and gives reasonable assurance that finally a newspaper man is to be made the nation's chief executive. Ohio has accorded Governor Cox very unusual distinction, and he deserved his noble victory at San Francisco. His nomination will not change our activities in any way in Ohio. It is a great party contest before us, to be fought on great principles involved, and neither place of residence nor personality will have any marked influence on the result."

No Reason for Change.

Amplifying his statement later to the newspaper correspondents, Senator Harding said his purpose as well as that of his supporters was to restore the Republican party to power and that the place of residence of the nominee would have little influence on the outcome of the fight. For that reason, the senator said, there was no necessity for changing his campaign policy.

While the actual writing of his speech of acceptance has not been started, the senator said tonight he expected to begin its preparation within a few days and have it finished by about July 16. He also said it would be shorter than speeches of similar character delivered in the past. One of the points which, it was understood, he intends to emphasize particularly is the necessity for the restoration of party government in place of "one man government."

Plans for the official notification ceremonies, which will be held here on July 22, are progressing rapidly. National Chairman Will H. Hays and T. Coleman DuPont, chairman of the sub-committee of the Republican national committee named to arrange details of the notification, will confer with the senator next Friday upon the matter.

"MY HEART IS IN THE GRAVE"

William J. Bryan Thus Expresses Himself Upon Outcome of the Democratic National Convention.

San Francisco, July 7. — "My heart is in the grave with our cause and I must pause until it comes back to me," said William J. Bryan, today, in giving his reason for not making any extended statement on the work of the Democratic national convention.

"My views on the convention's action in reference to endorsement of prohibition are known," said Mr. Bryan. "I regard it as a very serious mistake — it opens the door to the nomination of a war candidate. I need not repeat here what I have said before in regard to the evasion of other issues."

When asked if he would have anything to do with the third party movement, which begins its convention in Chicago July 19 or would endorse its candidate, he replied:

"I do not care to discuss any other movement. It took the Democratic convention quite a while to decide on a candidate, and the individual voters have about four months in which to consider the claims of the candidates. I shall use a part of that four months in considering the question. I do not care to say anything about congressional plans, but the question suggests a subject which cannot be overlooked; namely, the importance of selecting a senate and house that will refuse to increase the alcoholic content in permitted beverages, or any other weakening of the enforcement law."

PROFITEERS PLEAD GUILTY.

Birmingham, July 6. — In United States court today, Associate Justice Cooper reached the pleas of guilty made by Robert B. James, Albert Ingram and Harry Martin of Oswego, to two indictments, one charging profiting in sugar, and the other charging conspiracy against the United States. The defendants left with the clerk $12,000 in anticipation of Judge Cooper's expected to impose in court tomorrow.

LONGSHOREMEN STILL OUT.

Philadelphia, July 6. — A committee representing the 7,000 longshoremen, who have been out on strike five weeks, held a conference with the shipping interests here today, but came to no definite understanding.

THE DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATES.

After long periods of talking, in which many candidates had considerable, albeit in the end the nomination went to one of the members of the original group of three leaders, the Democratic National convention decided at twenty minutes to two yesterday morning upon the man who should be the party standard bearer. By what was in the end made a unanimous vote, Governor James M. Cox of Ohio was named party choice as successor to Woodrow Wilson. Finishing the work, Franklin D. Roosevelt of New York, who is the assistant secretary of the navy, was nominated for vice president.

While the matter of prohibition has no place or consideration in the party platform, it is quite generally understood that Cox was not displeased to the wets. This, along with the personal popularity of Cox in his own state, puts him at least in the running; and there may be no walk-over in November for either presidential candidate. Leaving the prohibition question aside, since it is not known at present what his announced stand will be, or whether he will be quiescent, as is the platform, it may be said that Cox has a good reputation at home as an efficient executive, and that his nomination changes Ohio from a certainly Republican to at least a disputed state. Some of the hottest campaigning of the year will doubtless be in Ohio.

The nomination of Franklin D. Roosevelt as candidate for vice president, also is a judicious one from a party standpoint. He has unquestionably many friends, and, though the position is in a large sense honorary and expectant, the vice presidential nominee has always been expected to strengthen the party in his state. From the standpoint of practical politics, therefore, it may be better than that of Coolidge, since the latter comes from a state which is normally Republican anyway. Moreover the Roosevelt nomination may be expected to placate administration Democrats who had not favored Cox.

There are some things to be demonstrated in the campaign. One is the warmth of support which the administration will give to one who won rather as an outsider than a friend of Wilson. The other is the attitude of Bryan and the dry Democrats on the nomination. In other and older years it was a conceded thing that all animosities engendered in or before the convention would be forgotten in the campaign and that everybody in November would vote the party ticket. Times have changed somewhat, and neither Republican nor Democrat can enter the canvass with any such expectation.

There was a time when Virginia was known as "Mother of Presidents." Since 1899 she has been used with Ohio for that distinction, but, no matter what the result of the campaign may be, next year Ohio will have taken the lead for this distinction. Virginia and Ohio now have each had five presidents. Next year the Ohio record will be six.

FARMERS' WEEK AT CORNELL.

Agricultural Organizations From All Parts of State Participate.

June 30 and July 1 and 2 were big days at the Agricultural college of Cornell university. Hundreds of motor cars from all sections of the state arrived in Ithaca and crowded the streets enroute for the campus.

Farmers' week has become a thing of state-wide importance, agricultural organizations from the whole state as well as from other states which are co-operating with the Empire state center the meetings about Cornell and help to make it a big success. A summer farmers' week is something new, and was put on by the agricultural department as a supplement of the winter meeting, which has always brought big crowds from the country. Nearly every progressive organ of the agricultural world was represented. Lectures on all farm problems took up much of the time. Demonstrations of new devices and labor-saving machines which are unknown or not well understood by the average farmer, put him in touch with new ideas and advance him much help. Entertainment of note are given by college students and other local organizations which are both interesting and instructive. Last but not least comes the auto-ride and excursion about the university campus and farm, which has never been a feature of the winter meeting.

To Raise Funds for Salvation Army. Miss Margaret C. Christie, representing the Salvation Army, who was in Oneonta last month in connection with the local work of raising funds for that organization, arrived in Oneonta Monday and in connection with her visit, a meeting has been called for 8 o'clock tonight at which women interested in the work are urged to present. The purpose is to meet the needs and to discuss plans for the future.

COMMENTS OF THE PRESS

The Army of Discontent.

The Committee of Forty-eight, the Union Labor party and the single taxers are to hold their national convention in Chicago the same week. Yet it is not expected that there will be any noticeable strain upon the hotel accommodations of the city. Here are three groups that might seem to be in the same bed. All that is needed is a "crazy-bout" for covering "The Forty-eight" expected to have the support of Senators Borah and Johnson and their immediate following. They would have wished to name one of them on their ticket, but after the participation of these two senators in the proceedings of the Republican convention they cannot in reason calculate upon their active support. They therefore turn to La Follette as representing the army of discontent. The Wisconsin senator has just had his car removed to a Minnesota hospital, but it is believed that he will have to be left to lead this torrid hope. — Los Angeles Times.

Auto Vehicle Casualties.

Much indignation is felt at the killing of 137 persons in New York state by vehicles during the month of June, an unusually high record even for an unusually dangerous month. But there seems to be no agreement as to where responsibility lies, or as to what more can be done to protect life. The trouble is that every highway has come to be one continuous grade crossing; anyone watches the chances that are constantly being taken is likely to wonder that casualties are not even more numerous. — Springfield Republican.

Turkish Trifling with Truth.

Turks reports they have defeated the Greeks with a loss of 10,000. But a Turkish report is no more reliable than one of Old Bill Hindenburg's treaty parts or some of Hindenburg's communiques, where he said the Boche had completely upset the enemy's plans, by retreating. — Albany Argus.

Grateful France.

In its instructions for the observance of the Fourth of July in schools the French government directed that special emphasis be put on Lafayette and the role played by France in the American war of independence. This should lend itself easily to a moral lesson on gratitude for favors received as distinguished from favors expected. — Exchange.

Big Rifle Matches Shot at Peekskill.

The representatives of Co. G, who returned yesterday from Peekskill, where the big state matches were shot on Sunday and Monday, state that the Tenth regiment team won two prizes on Sunday, the Brigade and Headquarters match, and the Governor's match. Each regimental team consists of 12 men selected from the different companies. Lieut. Henry D. McLaury was honored by being selected as a member of the regimental team and Sergeant Julian B. Jackson was made first substitute.

CONDUCT CAUSES CRITICISM.

Motorist Whose Car Hit Kenneth Oliver Not Considerate.

Since the publication of the story of the accident that befell Kenneth Oliver on Saturday afternoon last, additional information has been received, which does not place the motorist involved in the accident in as favorable a light as the first reports. At police headquarters, when he reported the accident, Alfred Pelandren, the motorist, implied that he would reimburse Oliver for all loss.

According to reliable information now at hand, Pelandren did get out of his car and go back to where the injured man lay but stepped out on the running board and examined his own car to see how badly the fenders were injured first. He kept insisting that he could not help the accident. Finally, when spectators advised him, he being a non-resident, to report the accident to police headquarters, he did so. That errand having been done, he requested Chief Horton to accompany him to the scene of the accident and to the home of Oliver.

At the Oliver home, the only assurance given was that he was insured against such an accident and that the company would care for all expenses and loss sustained. He volunteered to assume no obligation of any kind.

Eye witnesses of the accident state that he was moving fifty to miles an hour and that he said his rear wheels, with the brakes on, one side only working fully 50 feet before stopping the car, which would indicate a fast pace, much faster than Pelandren states.

It is gratifying that favorable reports are heard from Oliver. He is still confined to his bed but no indications of internal or critical injuries are seen. It is said by those who witnessed the accident that instead of being knocked down, that he was hit with such force as to be thrown over the car completely and to have alighted upon his head and shoulders on the pavement clear of the car. The marvel is that he was not killed outright.

Attending Mayors' Conference.

City Chamberlain C. H. Bowditch and Alderman J. O. Coy are attending the annual Mayors' convention at Jamestown, which commenced yesterday and will continue for three days. Many well known speakers and prominent politicians will address the convention on matters pertaining to municipal government and other subjects. It is expected that Governor Calvin Coolidge of Massachusetts, Republican nominee for vice president, will speak on the subject of law enforcement.

Wanted in Binghamton.

Local police officers took into custody yesterday Morris Avery, better known locally as "Trim," who is wanted in Binghamton on the charge of grand larceny in the second degree. It is understood here that he is involved in some automobile tire deal in that city and that an indictment was recently returned against him. An officer is expected today to convey him to the Broome county jail to await trial. He is well known here.

MUST COMPLETE REPAIRS

TROLLEY COMPANY GIVEN TEN DAYS TO FINISH MAIN STREET TRACK REPAIR.

Common Council Convinced Present Incomplete Condition Is Dangerous.—Store Front To Be Corrected.—Motor Bus Line for East and West Ends.

Determined to hasten the repairs to the tracks of the Southern New York railway on Main street near the corner of Broad street, which have been left in a dangerous condition, especially in view of the congested traffic at that point, the common council at its meeting last evening passed the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Southern New York Railway and Power corporation be directed to complete the repairs and alterations to its tracks near the corner of Main and Broad streets in this city within 10 days from date and that the clerk be directed to send a certified copy of this resolution to General Manager C. A. Graves at once.

The action was taken only after a discussion following a statement from Mayor Capelli that he considered the condition there dangerous to traffic and that it should not be permitted to long continue even though the city filled in the openings and made it passable to traffic.

Miller-Strong Store Front.

Architect Otto Epps was before the council and stated that the work upon the new front of the Miller-Strong Drug company was undertaken under a conception that no consent from the council was necessary for interior repairs and that the front would be constructed more of metal than the old one. His attention was called to a resolution passed recently by the fire commission declaring that the construction was not in accordance with the city ordinances and that the company be directed to conform therewith. Upon the passage of the resolution, work was suspended. It was stated that the front is being constructed of wood, whereas the ordinances require that it be of metal, it being considered an exterior wall.

Upon the request of Mr. Epps, a resolution was passed giving consent to the repairs, with the understanding that the work conform to the ordinances and regulations of the city. It is expected that the plans will be made to conform. The front as planned, is identical with the fronts of the other stores of the company and no intimation was received that the front was not in accord with local regulations until after the work was well under way.

Local Motor Bus Line.

A. J. LaGrange appeared before the council and asked consent to operate a motor bus line between East and West Ends during the time the trolley is not in operation along Main and Chestnut streets. City Attorney Becker advised the council that it had no right to grant such a request without a more formal procedure. Mr. LaGrange was advised to proceed with the operation of his bus as desired with the understanding that while the city had no authority to grant a temporary permit that the service to the public would be welcomed and desired in the emergency. The service will commence this morning and the motor bus will be operated as nearly as possible on the schedule of the trolley cars on that line.

River Street People Complain.

Alderman Tarnett reported that residents of the sixth ward are justly complaining that the River Street bus is neglecting service in that section to assist other sections now deprived of trolley service. At his suggestion, a resolution was passed requesting Mrs. Driggs having the franchise for River street to conform to the franchise granted and render the service proposed.

SUBSTITUTE FOR GASOLINE.

Motor Alcohol from Molasses Being Used in Gasoline Engines.

Hail to loamy and sticky molasses! From it is being produced "motor alcohol"—a substitute for gasoline. Discovered by J. P. Foster, chemist, one of the big sugar plantations on the island of Maui, Hawaii, production within the next three months will be sufficient to furnish fuel for all cars on the islands should a gasoline shortage occur.

According to the first reports of the new fuel, brought to San Francisco by District Manager F. E. Carroll of The Goodyear Tire & Rubber company of California, "motor alcohol" gives more power, greater mileage, easier starting and more freedom from carbon than gasoline. It can be used without an adjustment of the carburetor.

Sugar plantations have been letting their molasses run to waste or burning it for the potash recovery. Nitrogen and phosphoric acid are also valuable by-products of molasses. Now, however, production of the new fuel is found to be more profitable than obtaining other by-products.

At present there is enough molasses available to produce 9,000,000 gallons of "motor alcohol"—enough to supply all automobiles in Hawaii. Development of this industry will release shipping space formerly used for transporting gasoline from the United States.

LOCAL MENTION.

—Twenty-nine births and 16 deaths were recorded at the office of the city clerk during the month of June.

—The attendance at the children's playgrounds in Neahwa park remains about the same as when the grounds were opened. Owing to the delay in securing materials, the horizontal bars have not yet been erected.

—The training school at the Normal is now open for children from grades 2 to 5, from 9 to 12 o'clock in the forenoon only. Any child of the city will be welcomed whether a previous pupil of the Normal Training school or not.

—In The Star of a few days back announcement was made of the chance for our local boys to go to Camp Bluebird at Blauvelt on the Hudson. The stated time is now past and none availed themselves of this fine opportunity.

—Registration for summer school at the Oneonta Normal commenced on Saturday and continued during Monday. Owing to the large number of names presented the registration has not yet been counted. A considerable number of men are attending this session. Classes were opened on Tuesday.

—As noted elsewhere in this issue, A. J. LaGrange will this morning commence the operation of a motor bus line between East and West Ends, moving on a half-hour schedule and keeping on the time of the trolley system so far as possible. The first car will leave East End at 6:20 a. m. and maintain the half hour schedule thereafter.

—George Smaldone, who is master of that rare musical instrument, the flute, returned to Oneonta last evening, having closed his theatrical season with The Lost Battalion company, of which he was a member of the Overseas Jazz Revue. Commencing this afternoon, George will again occupy his old position as an added addition to the popular Oneonta theatre orchestra.

—Secretary of State Hugo, who is making a trip about this section of the state ascertaining public sentiment relative to his candidacy, was expected to reach the city last night. At 1 a. m. he had not arrived, so far as could be learned. It is expected that he will be in the city today. Doubtless he was delayed at other places in his itinerary of yesterday.

—At a meeting of the Board of Public Works on Monday evening it was decided to lay the following sidewalks: on the north side of Chestnut from Pearl street to the school property; on the west side of Morgan avenue from Chestnut street to Butler street; on the west side of Gardner place from Main street to the John Harper property; on the south side of Cedar street from Elm street to Maple street. Other routine business was transacted.

Meetings Today.

Regular meeting Oneonta Lodge, No. 1212, K. P. O. Elks, this evening at 8 o'clock.

Regular meeting of Royal Rebekah Lodge, in I. O. O. F. temple, this evening at 7:30.

The L. O. O. M. will hold their regular meeting at their lodge rooms on Dietz street at 8 o'clock this evening. Report from a delegate to Mooseheart. Every member be present.

The regular monthly business meeting of the Ladies' guild of the Lutheran church will be held Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, with Mrs. A. Engel, hostess at Chestnut street.

AUTO TRAGEDY AT UNADILLA

DR. CLAUDE R. WOODS AND WIFE OF DELHI INSTANTLY KILLED.

Third Member of Party Has Thigh and Leg Broken and Is in Critical Condition at Fox Memorial Hospital. Auto Struck by East-Bound Afternoon Passenger Train — Passing Freight Blanketed Passenger Train and Dr. Woods Drives Directly in Front of Engine — Was Coroner and Popular Delaware Physician.

The most serious and the first fatal auto accident which has taken place in several months in the county of Otsego occurred at about three o'clock (Standard time) yesterday afternoon at the lower railroad crossing in Unadilla. The victims of the accident were Dr. and Mrs. Claude R. Woods of Delhi, both of whom were killed, the body of the former being crushed almost beyond recognition. A third member of the party, Miss Louise Sanford of Tenafly, N. J., a teacher, who was a guest at the Woods home, was severely injured, her right thigh being fractured and her left leg broken above the ankle. She was also severely shocked, and is believed to have sustained other injuries. She is now at the Fox Memorial hospital in this city, and, while her condition is serious, Dr. Stearns of Unadilla, who accompanied her to Oneonta on Train No. 399, states that she has apparently more than an even chance for recovery.

It is understood that Dr. and Mrs. Woods and Miss Sanford left Delhi early in the afternoon on a few hours pleasure and business trip to Sidney in the new Oakland 6 recently purchased by the former. They were on their way home and at about three o'clock had reached the lower railroad crossing in Unadilla, and were heading toward the village. At the crossing they were held up by a south-bound freight train and as soon as this had passed Dr. Woods apparently put on power and drove upon the track, without noticing the afternoon passenger train, north-bound from Binghamton, which had been blanketed by the freight. The engine appears to have struck the car squarely, and the impact was such that the auto was entirely demolished.

Dr. Woods was thrown a distance of about 40 feet and was instantly killed, many bones in his body being broken. The two women were caught upon the pilot of the engine and carried about two train-lengths before it could be brought to a standstill. Mrs. Woods, it is understood, was still breathing when taken from the track but died after being placed in the train to be removed to Unadilla. Miss Sanford, partially unconscious, received immediate surgical assistance from Dr. Stearns and was brought on a stretcher with Train 399 to Oneonta.

Dr. George A. Sloan of Worcester, one of Otsego's coroners, was a passenger on the train which struck the auto and took charge of removing the bodies to Unadilla. He conducted an investigation of the accident at the time and it is not believed that he will decide that an inquest is necessary. The bodies of Dr. and Mrs. Woods were removed to the Joyce undertaking parlors at Unadilla and remained there over night. It is expected that they will be shipped on to Delhi today. No arrangements have yet been made for the funeral services.

Was Popular Delaware Physician.

Delhi, July 6. — Dr. Claude Raymond Woods, a Canadian by birth, was a man about 50 years of age. He came to Delhi ten years since from Hamilton, where he had practiced for five or six years. Previous to this, he spent some years in India as a medical missionary. He was a man who had seen a good deal of the world and possessed considerable literary attainments.

During his 15 years' residence in Delaware county, he had won a prominent place among the medical men of this section and had a large practice. For the past three years, he had been one of the coroners of Delaware county.

Since living in Delaware, he lost his first wife, also a Canadian, and a few months later he was again bereaved by the death of his only daughter, Hazel Woods, then about 14 years old. He is survived by one son, Haliday Woods, a divinity student, who is now preaching in Utah. His friends here are unable to give the names of any other surviving relatives, but it is known that he has a mother and perhaps other relatives living in Canada.

The community was shocked to learn of the death of Dr. and Mrs. Woods. No intelligence had been received here tonight as to the disposition of the bodies, the only word being of the fatal accident.

Dr. Woods was a man well liked by a wide circle of friends and his sudden death is the source of general regret.

Mrs. Woods, the second wife of Dr. Woods, was Miss Vera Laidlaw of Delaware and was married to the physician about four years ago. She had been prominent in social and community affairs both in Delaware and Delhi and she was a young woman with many fine traits. She was about 24 years of age.

Mrs. Woods is survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eliezer Laidlaw of Delaware, by one sister, Miss Mary Laidlaw, a student in the training school for nurses at St. Luke's hospital, Brooklyn, and by two brothers residing in this country. The sympathy of the community will be extended to the family in their bereavement.

The Woods name has lately been brought into considerable prominence hereabouts because of the war record of Dr. Woods' only son, Haliday, who served with the British army for two years. He was in some of the worst engagements of the early months of the war and nearly lost his life in one battle. Since his return to this country, he took up the study of the ministry and has preached successfully in many of the churches of this vicinity. He has been notified of his

NEGOTIATIONS OPENED

FOR SETTLEMENT OF DIFFERENCES BETWEEN TROLLEY OFFICIALS AND MEN.

Through Good Offices of Cooperstown Chamber of Commerce Committee of Men Meet General Manager — Tentative Agreement Not Entirely Acceptable When Presented to Employees — Further Conference This Afternoon.

Negotiations have been opened looking to a settlement of the differences between the employees of the Southern New York railway, who recently organized a new union, and the officers of the company. It was thought that the company would proceed in an effort to hire other local men and resume operations as fast as cars could be manned and that was the plan early yesterday.

As a result of interest displayed in the situation by the Cooperstown Chamber of Commerce at a meeting yesterday a conference was arranged between a committee of the men and General Manager Graves, held later in the day at Cooperstown. At this conference a tentative proposal was drawn. This was submitted to the men at a meeting held last evening at Hartwick. Upon most of the points the proposal was deemed satisfactory, but upon one or more the men halted and no settlement was reached.

The situation is not without hope, however, as the conference last evening at Hartwick agreed before adjourning to meet again at 3 o'clock this afternoon for further negotiations. It is hoped and it is believed not without warrant that if the conferences can continue between the officers of the road and the men themselves that some plan can be devised upon which they can adjust their differences. It is quite apparent that the road is in a class quite remote from the conditions prevailing where there are large centers with many patrons, and if under the financial conditions which are known to exist there can be attained an agreement under which the men can return to work there will be much satisfaction expressed by the public now much inconvenienced by the tie-up.

The company kept its milk trains moving yesterday and gave electric service last night. No effort was made to handle any passengers or the United States mail.

Acting upon instructions from the superintendent of railway mails, Postmaster Beams has arranged for a motor car mail service operating between Oneonta and Cooperstown, with a trip Oneonta to Cooperstown in the morning and a return trip later in the day. There is an accumulation of mail here for all points Oneonta to Hartwick. As soon as this can be pouched and made ready this morning the motor car engaged will leave the Oneonta office on the initial trip. The hour of its departure was uncertain last night. It will continue until the road is again in operation, unless it shall develop that a prolonged suspension of trolley service is certain.

COY BARN DEMOLISHED.

Long-Time Center of Livery Activities Razed to Ground.

The Coy livery barn on Dietz street, which was purchased by L. H. Bond and D. F. Keyes of Arthur Coy, has been torn down and the greater part of the materials composing the structure removed for use in other building operations. During the latter part of this week work will be commenced on the cellar for the three story garage to be erected by the Oneonta Garage company. The building on Wall street at present occupied by the company will be used as an adjunct to the new garage.

In the days when the flourishing stage coach lines were in the heyday of their prosperity, the site was occupied by a barn, which was used by Mr. Hufford for the housing of stage horses. In 1875 the building was incorporated in a larger structure by A. C. Lewis, who also built the brick building now occupied by Brannan's garage, the two being used as livery barns. McDonald and Ferrell and A. S. Miles also utilized portions of the property as livery barns. The property was purchased about 26 years ago by Arthur Coy, who used it until the time of its sale for livery purposes.

Miss Louise Sanford, the only survivor of the fatal accident, is the daughter of Frank Sanford of Tenafly, N. J., but formerly of New Kingston, Delaware county. For the past year, she has taught in Englewood, N. J., and came here shortly afterward to visit at the Woods home for a few weeks. She is 21 years old.

THE FOURTH IN ONEONTA

Quiet Chilly Day for Which Baseball Furnished Excitement.

The Fourth of July in Oneonta this year—or more properly the Fifth, which by statute was the legal independence day—was in general quiet and uneventful. There was less than the usual amount of fireworks, torpedoes and toy pistols in evidence, probably because the high cost of things had struck fireworks as well as clothing and food. But there were two excellent ball games, of which full record elsewhere appears, and everybody present got their money—and time's—worth of enjoyment.

In the evening the absence of fireworks was noticeable. There were, of course, rockets and Roman candles, but not in such numbers as in other years have streaked the evening skies of the city, and before ten o'clock all was apparently over and every youngster asleep. There no accidents of importance, which also is in contrast to other years, and if there were the customary torpedoes on the street car tracks, there were no cars coming along to explode them.

Wanted—At once, counter man at Twentieth Century lunch room.

For Sale—Safe formerly used in our office. Briggs Lumber company 6t

DEATH OF AGED RESIDENT.

Charles A. Bartholomew Expires Monday Morning—Funeral Today.

Charles Albert Bartholomew died at his home, 293 River street this city, on July fifth at 2 a. m. He was born in Cheshire, August 3rd, 1842, to Chauncey Bartholomew and Catherine Vandenburgh. As a young man he taught school. He enlisted in the Third New York Light Artillery, Battery M, and served his country for three and one-half years in the war of "1861-65." He was twice married, first to Hannah Cook of West Oneonta, three children being born from that marriage: Frank who died at the age of 25 years, Winnie Ella Bingham, of Oneonta, and Jennie L. Spencer of Albany. The second marriage was to Mrs. Roseanna Jones of West Oneonta. He took up his residence in Oneonta in 1879 and has lived in the present location for the past 40 years. He is survived by his wife, two daughters and several grandchildren and one brother, A. J. Bartholomew at Syracuse. Religion had been a large factor in his life. He early united with the Free Baptist church of West Oneonta, and later with the Main Street Baptist church of Oneonta. At the organization of the West End Baptist church of Oneonta, he was a charter member and was elected deacon, which office he held at his death.

The funeral will be held this Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the West End Baptist church, Rev. N. S. Burd officiating. Interment will be made at West Oneonta.

The Oneonta post, G. A. R., is invited to attend the services at the church.

FUNERALS.

Miss Mary A. Parsons.

The funeral of Miss Mary A. Parsons was held at Bainbridge on Saturday, at 2:30 o'clock, in St. Peter's Episcopal church, the Rev. Scoville officiating. After the services, the body was taken to Green Lawn cemetery for burial.

Those who attended from Oneonta were as follows: Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Waters and daughter, Mrs. Flora Seeger, Mrs. J. T. Waters, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Miller and Mr. and Mrs. Ford Smith.

George W. Watts Laid to Rest.

Funeral services for George W. Watts, who passed away early Sunday morning, took place yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock from his late home, 75 Maple street, with a large attendance of friends and neighbors. Rev. Dr. E. J. Farley, pastor of the First Baptist church, conducted the services and delivered a brief eulogy in which he "referred to Mr. Watts' service for his country, he having been a veteran of the Civil war. A profusion of floral tributes evidenced the esteem of friends.

After the services at the house, the body was taken to Glenwood cemetery for burial. R. J. Torrey, J. H. Potter, Frank Cameron and Morris Ackley acted as bearers.

Mr. Arthur M. Butts and daughter, Miss Ethlyn Morse, arrived home last evening after a visit among friends in New England, after the commencement at Wellesley college from which institution Miss Morse was graduated last month.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Eaton of Syracuse, Mr. and Mrs. Otis Eaton of Ansonia, Conn., and Mr. and Mrs. John Barton of Stamford, Conn., returned home Monday after spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Carr L. Hotelling of 30 Fair street.

Miss Martha Foland, secretary to State Conservation Commissioner Pratt, accompanied her friend, Miss Elizabeth Crowl, to Portlandville Saturday, and the two young ladies were guests for the week-end of the latter's mother, Mrs. Salisbury.

Week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Day of 11 Irving place were Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Stracon and Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Stevens of Cleveland, Ohio, and Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Hunt, Harry Hunt and Miss Mary Hunt of Norwich. The Cleveland auto party left Monday for a tour of the Eastern states.

Mr. and Mrs. James L. Matteson and son, James Jr., leave this morning for New York city, where Mr. Matteson is established in business and where the family will hereafter reside. Mrs. Fritz, mother of Mrs. Matteson, left for New York yesterday, accompanied by her granddaughter, Miss Grace Matteson.

Miss Eloise Augustin of Laurens, a member of the faculty of the State Normal school, departed Tuesday for New York city, whence she sails on Saturday on the S. S. Philadelphia for France, where she will be the guest for the summer of her sister, Mrs. W. W. Saunders, at San Servan on the Brittany coast. She expects to return about September 1.

Harry W. Seward of Buffalo is spending a ten days' vacation at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Seward, of Upper West street. Mr. Seward has resigned his position as salesman for the Elliott-Fisher company and upon his return to Buffalo will be engaged with the investment banking house of A. L. Chambers and Company in the capacity of a bond salesman. His new occupation carries a considerable salary and professional advancement and Oneonta friends of the young man will join in congratulating him.

PREPARE FOR BIG LEGION MEET

First County Convention Will Take Place in Cooperstown on July 15—All Former Service Men Invited—Chaplain Kelley to Speak.

At a special meeting of Oneonta post, No. 219, American legion, held last evening, plans were discussed for bringing a large number of former service men together to attend the first annual convention of the American legion in Otsego county, to be held on Thursday, July 15, in Cooperstown.

Dr. J. C. Smith and Al. Bergan were appointed a committee to arrange for transporting the men to Cooperstown, which will probably be by auto. John Bjork, Chris Kleeman, H. S. Wyckoff and Al. Bergan are the members of the committee in charge of the sale of tickets for the convention. These tickets are priced at $1.50 each and will provide for the entire program of the convention. The charge is necessary in order to partially meet the expenses of the big meeting, at which it is expected there will be a large attendance of former soldiers and sailors in Otsego county.

The first session of the convention will open at 10 a. m., with a business meeting, at which officers will be elected and plans for stimulating the work of the legion in the county will be discussed. A lake boat has been chartered for the occasion, and at noon the party will leave for Three Mile Point on Otsego lake, where a shore dinner will be served. Following the dinner, the afternoon will be devoted to speeches by Rev. Father Francis Kelley of Troy, national chaplain of the American legion, and by representatives from the federal Bureau of Vocational Training and the Bureau of War Risk Insurance. It is aimed to make the meeting one of benefit to all former service men, and it is hoped that they will turn out in large numbers.

Tickets for the convention may be obtained from any member of the committee mentioned above. All former service men, whether members of the legion or not, are cordially invited, and a big time is promised all who respond.

At last night's meeting, a committee headed by Dr. D. C. Smith was appointed to nominate officers of the local post for next year. These nominations will be offered at the regular meeting of the post next Tuesday night and will then be elected.

Ford

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

There are more than 4,000,000 Ford cars in daily service throughout the world, and fully eighty per cent of these are Ford Touring Cars. There are many reasons for this, not the least of which is the simplicity in the design of the car, so easy to understand; likewise it is easy to operate; and mighty inexpensive compared to other motor cars. On the farm, in the city, for business and for family pleasure, it is the car of the people, and the demand is increasing every day. Let us have your order promptly if you want one.

Save Sugar

By serving Jiffy-Jell Real-Fruit Desserts

Jiffy-Jell desserts are rich in fruit. A bottle of condensed fruit juice comes in each package.

They are ready-sweetened and acidulated. You simply add boiling water, as directed on package, then the liquid fruit essence from the vial. Also mix in fresh fruit, if desired, and let cool. No sugar required.

Jiffy-Jell is economical. One package serves six.

It saves your sugar, for we put the sugar in it.

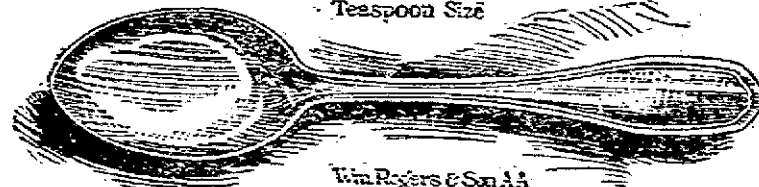

It is rich in fruit, for the bottle of flavor is the condensed juice of much ripe fruit.

Millions have adopted Jiffy-jell as the ideal fruit dessert.

HORKE VINO JOINTS RAIDED

CHIEF HORTON AND AID GATHEER IN MANY CASES OF THE STUFF.

Armed with search warrants granted by Judge Kellogg they visit Stone Jug, Star Hotel and Mollinari's on South Main Street—Evidently Used for "Average" Purposes.

Armed with search warrants issued by Judge Kellogg at Binghamton early in the day, Chief Horton with others of the force raided last night three places which were understood to be trafficking largely in Horke Vino and captured a considerable quantity of the liquor, which has been giving the city officials no little trouble of late. It was all trucked to the Municipal building, the rooms of the officers in that building resembling a booze joint more than anything else when they were through.

At the Stone Jug, on Market street, conducted by Peter DeNecris, they captured 15 cases of Horke Vino; at the Star Hotel, on Broad street, they found nearly three cases of Lash Bitters and 3 1/2 gallons of rye whiskey and one case of Horke Vino; the third place, Mollinari's on South Main street, was found to contain 78 cases of Horke Vino and a third of a barrel of Italian wine.

No arrests were made as far as could be learned. Traffic in the commodity found in such liberal quantities has been assuming such proportions that it could not be assumed for an instant that it was for medicinal purposes only and something must of necessity be done or the city would soon have been in worse condition than before it voted dry. It will be folly to attempt in any court to show that it was being dispensed in these places for medicinal purposes.

The initial step having been taken, it will now devolve on the county officials to institute proceedings and see that the matter is presented to the grand jury. Oneonta having voted dry by such an overwhelming majority, the police department could not in justice to itself do other than attempt to stop this traffic.

Portlandville Boys Injured.

Dwight Daniels of Portlandville and his brother were considerably "bumped up" as the result of being thrown from Dwight's motorcycle last Monday evening about three miles north of Portlandville, near the Irving Blanchard farm. Dwight was riding in the side car, while his brother was running the machine. The side car suddenly broke loose and before the boys had time to jump, the machine went over a bank and threw both out with considerable force. Dwight had two teeth knocked out and was badly cut about the face, but his brother escaped with a badly bruised shoulder. Both were able to walk to their home, a short distance from where the accident occurred.
